Justice Town Hall Meeting

M.P. Rathgeber Announces Public Meeting in February

I would like to invite you to the upcoming Town Hall Meeting in your area to discuss safe streets and safe communities.

The discussion at this meeting will be based on our Government's efforts to crack down on crime and give you the opportunity to voice your concerns. There will be a panel of experts to answer your questions and hear your concerns, including Chief Mike Boyd of the Edmonton Police Service; Greg Rice of the Public Prosecution Service of Canada; and Doug Brady of the Edmonton Drug Treatment Court.

Wednesday, February 17th, 2010
Kensington Community Hall, (12130—134A Avenue NW)
7:00 pm—9:00 pm

I look forward to meeting you at this town hall meeting and to hearing your opinions on some very important issues facing our community.

“Canadians are demanding that lawmakers pass laws to promote safe streets and safe communities. Our Government will not rest until confidence is restored in the judicial system and criminals receive serious sentences proportionate to their actions.”

“Canadians want a justice system that has clear and strong laws that denounce and deter serious crimes, including serious drug crimes. They want laws that impose penalties that adequately reflect the serious nature of these crimes.”

Honourable Rob Nicholson, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Justice
