Justice Town Hall Meeting

M.P. Rathgeber Announces Public Meeting in February

I would like to invite you to the upcoming Town Hall Meeting in your area to discuss safe streets and safe communities.

The discussion at this meeting will be based on our Government's efforts to crack down on crime and give you the opportunity to voice your concerns. There will be a panel of experts to answer your questions and hear your concerns, including Chief Mike Boyd of the Edmonton Police Service; Greg Rice of the Public Prosecution Service of Canada; and Doug Brady of the Edmonton Drug Treatment Court.

Wednesday, February 17th, 2010
Kensington Community Hall, (12130—134A Avenue NW)
7:00 pm—9:00 pm

I look forward to meeting you at this town hall meeting and to hearing your opinions on some very important issues facing our community.

“This Government believes that Canadians are entitled to have their identities and their valuable information protected to the highest degree possible. This legislation (S-4) is crucial if Canadians are to be protected properly. S-4 is part of a comprehensive anti-crime strategy to promote Canadians’ safety.”

“Our Government is committed to targeting gangs and other organized criminal groups that are involved in violent crimes. We will continue to take tough, responsible action to make our streets and communities safer and more secure.”

Honourable Rob Nicholson, P.C., M.P.
Minister of Justice
February 26, 2009
